

Chesley's Hospital Auxiliary played host to the Region 3 Spring Conference of the Hospital Auxiliaries Association of Ontario last Wednesday. In charge of the arrangements locally were (back row - left to right) Vada Calhoun, lunch convener; Elsie Miska, lead convener; Thelma Melville, Chesley Auxiliary president, and Grace Wilkens, first vice-president. In the front are Region 3 chairmait, Donna Mowry, of Kincardine, and the day's guest speaker, Ruby Wilson, of Brampton, who spoke to the 218 delegates on Volunteers. Thirty-seven members of the Chesley Hospital Auxiliary attended the event.

Vol. 108, No. 22, Chesley, Ontario, Wednesday, May 30, 1984

The Chesley Horticultural Society held a Bicentennial Tea and flower sale on the weekend. Left to right, back row are, Clarence Lange, president; Ruby Legge, Jean Knapp, Jo Ferguson, May Walpole,

Dingona Botma, Susie Schaus and Dirk Botma. Front Row, left to right are, Thelma Melville, Edythe Manery, Lois Schoof and Dorota Phillips.