

Members honoured

Continued from Page 1

Members of the Paisley 4-H Swine Club.

The 4-H Grain Club

Among the accomplishments of Dean Ribey was having the top beef steer, plus being judged best first-year showman for the Paisley 4-H Beef Club. He and many other 4-H members received trophies at a special 4-H awards night on Friday in the Paisley Community Centre. Jim Merriam Photos.

"Best Dairy Heifer" award was won by Karen Fenton, who received the Alvin Davey Family trophy. Karen also walked off with the highest aggregate silver tray, presented by the Henry Pope Family. The first-year member award went to Mike Fenton, a trophy presented by Barry and Dianne Ribey. Mike also received a first-year plaque and Holstein cap.

The 22-members of the Beef Club under the leadership of Jack and Donelda MacGillivray and Paul Ribey had a very rewarding year. Six members have qualified to compete in the Queen's Guineas Class at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, on November 20 and 21.

Dean Ribey won the 'Top Beef Steer' trophy from Elmwood Livestock Ltd., and the 'Best First-Year Showperson' trophy donated by Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce.

'Top Market Heifer' was won by James Fullerton, who received the trophy from John Robinson.

Becky Ackert won the 'Top Breeding Heifer' trophy donated by B and L Farm Services.

Best set of Records was awarded to Rosanne Calhoun by George Marszalek of the Royal Bank of Paisley. Rosanne captured the Davis Farms trophy presented by Reta Davis for the highest aggregate score and the U.C.O. trophy for the Best Showperson, which was presented by Ross Quanz.

The First-year member with the highest aggregate score was Mary McCulloch and she received the Lloyd Hutton Transport trophy, presented by Margaret Jean Hutton.

The Cargill Auction Market trophy for the first-year member with the 'Best Trained Calf' went to Cynthia Halliday.

Scott Cumming walked off with the trophy from Tri County Cattle Co., for the Best Beef Judged at the Grey Bruce Judging Competition in Hanover.

Margie Fenner and Greg McGillivray were tied for the Top Angus-Cross Calf and each received a $10 cash donation from Bruce and Edith McGillivray.

Port Elgin Veterinary Clinic Trophy for the 'Special Project' was won by Jeff Ackert.

Grey Bruce Mutual Tire Insurance Co., awarded each of the remaining members with a small trophy.

Bud Rier Chev-Olds Ltd., had presented all members with a rope-tie for their calf on fair day.

Breed Awards

Simmental Awards were presented by Lorne Faust to Mark Denney, Jeff Faust, Andy and Mary McCulloch.

Limousin pins went to Becky Ackert, Jeff Ackert, Rosanne Calhoun, Shelley Lynn Cumming, James Fullerton, Cynthia Halliday, Tim Halliday, Bruce Ribey, Scott Thede and Trevor Calhoun.

Charolais Caps presented to Steven Co-bean and Heather

McGillivray. Hereford Digest and cap - Dean Ribey.

Aberdeen Angus - sports bags to Dale Alexander, Scott Cumming, Margie Fenner, Greg McGillivray and Janice McGillivray.

Andy McCulloch received an award for completing six projects, Bruce Ribey for completing 12 projects and Rosanne Calhoun for 24 projects.

Leadership Awards went to Barry Ribey - for five years' leadership in the Dairy Club and to Jack McGillivray for ten years leadership in the Beef Club.

The leaders expressed their appreciation for the help and co-operation from the parents and members of each club, and a sincere "Thank You" to all donors. The Agriculture Industry is still very much alive in our area, with all the enthusiasm shown by these young people in their 4-H work.

James Fullerton had the top market heifer in the Paisley 4-H beef club. His was one of several awards presented at a special awards night Friday. John Robinson presents the trophy.

Wednesday, March 11, 1987

4-H - It's up to you

"You are the fellow that has to decide
Whether you'll do it, or toss it aside
You are the fellow who makes up your mind
Whether you'll lead or linger behind.

Eager and earnest or dull through the day
Honest or crooked?
It's you who must say!
You must decide in the face of the test
Whether you'll shirk or give it your best.

Whether you'll try for the goal that's afar
Or be contented to stay just where you are
Take it or leave Here's something to do
Just think it over...It's all up to you."