Step Into Spring is a big hit

"Step into Spring" was a big hit for 1987.

The Women's Evening Auxilliary of the Presbyterian Church had a very successful afternoon and evening showing of fashions by Joannie's of Paisley.

Everything from wild "out of Africa" prints to elegant evening wear was presented for spring and a sneak preview to Fall '87 was shown, as well.

Commentator for the show was a very able Kay Remus. Several lucky ladies won door prizes which were donated by the following merchants: Beauty Counsellor - Irene Crawford; Berthier's Home Hardware; Bruce County Tartan; Bruce Packers; Gourmet Restaurant; Joannie's Fashions; John Robinson Feeds; Karen's Place - Karen Martin; Micky's Petite Salon - Micky Majury; Paisley 5 to $1.00; Paisley Tavern; Paisley Variety; Scott's Friendly Market; Thompson Bros. Ontario Homestead; The Top Shop - Debbie Meyer; Unicorn Crafts; Woody's Pizza; Women's Evening Auxilliary.

Animal Rights a threat 1987 to farming?

What impact could the animal rights movement have on farmers? CBC's Country Canada, at a forum and panel discussion on December 3, examines the question Animal Rights: A Threat to Farming?

The public is invited to attend the forum and question five panelists on Thursday, Dec. 3, at 2 p.m. at the University of Guelph in the Arboretum Auditorium. The forum will be taped to air on Country Canada on Dec. 27.

The panel features:

Vicki Miller, president, Toronto Humane Society; Brigid Pyke, president, Ontario Federation of Agriculture; Dr. Andrew Luescher, DVM/PhD., University of Guelph, Ontario, Veterinary College; David Fraser, Animal Behavior Specialist, Agriculture Canada, Ottawa; Jim Bandow, Executive Director, Canadian Federation of Humane Societies, Ottawa.

"The results of factory farming come to us in neat cellophane-wrapped packages with no indication of the discomfort that the animal went through in its lifetime," said Vicki Miller, president of the Toronto Humane Society and co-founder of ARK II, a radical

Hallidays observe 50 years

On Saturday, June 6, a family celebration was held at St. John's United Church, Chesley, to mark the 50th wedding anniversary of Charles and Ruby Halliday of RR 2, Chesley.

Charles Halliday, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Halliday and Ruby McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McKee, all of Keady, were married on June 12, 1937 at the bride's family home, Hillview Farm.

Maid of Honour, Jean (Hemstock) Fenton, niece of the bride and best man, Les Halliday, brother of the groom, were in attendance for this happy occasion.

All seven of the Halliday children and their families were present - Jim of London, Russel of Chesley, Corinne of Vancouver, Jean (Mrs. John Burkholder) of Thornhill, Francis of Chesley, Pat (Mrs. William Roesner) and John of London.

Congratulatory messages were received from Brian Mulroney, John Turner and Jeanne Sauve.
