Krug's factory is sold

Sept /88

by Mary Golem

Indications are it is good news for Chesley!

Krug Bros. furniture factory, as well as the heavy manufacturing woodworking equipment inside, have been sold to two separate buyers.

Although neither deal has been finalized, Dave Tarzwell, owner of CPP Liquidators, who bought the firm last week in order to liquidate the remaining assets, says things "look very good for the town of Chesley."

Tarzwell added a local person has purchased the factory building and a separate buyer has purchased the woodworking equipment. The identity of the buyers will be released when the deals are finalized, probably early next week.

Meanwhile, CPP Liquidators of Georgetown have been authorized to sell off all remaining assets of Krug Bros. furniture factory.

According to Tarzwell, this Friday, September 30 from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday, October 1 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., a public sale will be held at the factory with up to 50 per cent off the retail price of solid oak bedroom suites, dining room suites, china cabinets and desks. (This is not an auction but rather a public sale to interested parties).

Then on Wednesday, October 5 and Thursday, October 6 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., a machinery and equipment sale will be held at the factory. Included in this public sale will be woodworking equipment, small tools, metal shop and mechanical supplies and equipment, office furniture and supplies and lots more, Tarzwell says.

For more information about the liquidation sale at Krug Bros. contact CPP Liquidators at 416-877-2254.
