

MRS. ADELAIDE HOODLESS

In 1896, she was instrumental in the organization of the first Womens Institute, which held their first meeting at Stoney Creek, on February 19th 1897.

On June 18th 1947, the Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration was held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph - attended by delegates from all parts of the Province.

The delegates from Glasgow W.I. were Mrs George Eady and Mrs John Sebie.

Mrs Reid Carswell, President of Glasgow W.I. was delegate to the Officers Conference held in Agricultural College, Guelph.

May 5, 6, 7. 1954. Delegates travelled by bus.