

Mrs. C. Lemke hosts Glasgow WI

- 1973

Mrs. C Lemke was hostess to members of the Glasgow Women's Institute for their August meeting, with the committee on agriculture and Canadian Industries in charge of the program.

An especially interesting feature of the meeting was a talk by Mrs. Arnold Somerville giving a vivid description of a recent trip to the Yukon and northern territories This was very much enjoyed by all present.

The motto for the month was taken by Mrs. Reid Carswell, who also prepared a "mysterv box", winner of which was Mrs. J. Forrest Roll call, answered with items of interest in agriculture, also proved informative and interesting.

Considerable discussion took place on final plans for placing an exhibit in Renfrew fair, and a committee was appointed to gather the different items and arrange the exhibit.

Members of the Glasgow branch were also asked to assist with the serving of tea on Saturday afternoon, Sept 8, in the women's and exhibitors' building, and volunteers were called for in this regard.

Refreshments were enjoyed following adjournment. The September meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. J Forrest, with the committee on family and consumer affairs in charge of program and refreshments.

"HIS WOMEN FOLKS"

Three Act Comedy Drama

Presented by

GLASGOW WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

CHARACTERS:

William Breckenridge's New Wife	Lois McNab
His Mother	Olive Somerville
His Grandmother	Margaret Hamilton
His Older Sister	Thelma Gillan
His Younger Sister	Gladys Kewley
His Maiden Aunt	Elizabeth Carswell
His Nosey Neighbor	Edna Code
His Cook	Flo Young
His Housemaid	Fanny Stewart

Place: The Living Room of the Breckenridge Home.

Time: The Present.

Presented at Glasgow, Forrester's Falls and Galabogie. 1954.