

In school expenses, items like the following, appeared.

Lundy for broom, 25 ¢ D. M^c Linden, for paper, pens and ink, 11½ ¢ pail and broom, 45 ¢. etc.

Teachers salaries ranged from $2.00 to 3.50 in 1886.

Number on roll in 1893 was 52; in 1896, 63; in 1899, 60.

The Treasury appeared rather empty at the close of each year, Auditors reports giving balances on hand as $12.13^c, $11.83^c and other small sums, and money was borrowed to defray expenses. Government Grants being $33.55 - $29.40 etc. The school year ended in December, teachers were hired then, which was more convenient in the business of the school.

A belfry and bell were erected on top of the school house in 1898, when Miss Mary Anderson was teacher. This bell was bought with proceeds of a concert.

In 1905 a new brick school was built on the 8th line at Glasgow, with Miss Violet E. Mackie as first teacher.

The old school building was used afterwards for a Methodist Church then sold to Daniel Young, jr. turned into a horse stable & hen house, and still stands, close to Highway 17.

Song of the Pioneers

Tune - Long, Long Ago.

Tell me the tales that to me were so dear,
Long long ago, long long ago.
Sing me the songs I delighted to hear,
Long long ago, long ago.
Dear to my heart is the old, sweet refrain,
On wings of mem'ry it comes once again,
Telling the stories of joy and of pain,
Long long ago, long ago.

Sing me again all the songs that were dear,
Long long ago, long long ago.
And all the tales I delighted to hear,
Long long ago, long ago.
Sing of the work that was done day by day,
Sing of the hands that were pointing the way,
Blest with the faith in a new golden day,
Long long ago, long ago.

These were the scenes that I loved as of yore,
Long long ago, long long ago.
Keeping their places in memory's store,
Long long ago, long ago.
These were the faces of those that are gone,
These were the voices that still linger on,
These were the blessings of deeds that were done,
Long long ago, long ago.
