Man, 84,
 killed

An 84-year-old Arnprior area man died late Friday evening in the Civic hospital in Ottawa from multiple injuries he suffered in a car accident on Highway 17 at Glasgow Station.

The Renfrew OPP report that Celesta Hamilton of RR 2 Arnprior was crossing Highway 17 on County Road 9 when his car was in collision with a westbound car. Hamilton was northbound in his 1967 Chevrolet at about 4.45 pm.

Three persons in the other vehicle, the driver, Ethyl Irene Salter, 61, of Harry Street, Renfrew, her husband, Claude Salter 64, and Michael Salter, 6, were all taken to Renfrew Victoria Hospital. Mr and Mrs Salter were treated and released. Michael was admitted and is in satisfactory condition.

The investigating officer reported that visibility was clear at the time of the crash, even though the pavement was wet.
