

Photographic Peek into the Past

A Hereford bull owned by Thomas Hamilton of Glasgow Station took top sale price at the Renfrew County Beef Breeders' Bull Sale in late May 1964. More than 100 people attended the auction sale at the fairgrounds. The 1,070-pound Hereford bull, named Dochert Del Tone Heir, sold for $510 to Dave Mundy of Carp. The bull was born on April 6, 1963. Eighteen of the 20 bulls at the sale were auctioned, with the average price being $330. Among the list were 14 Herefords, two Aberdeen Angus, and two Shorthorns.