

Doris Waddell

Part 2

March of 1861

Thomas Clark is described as a weaver and farmer, Church of Scotland, aged 58, born in County Down, Ireland. His wife Elizabeth, aged 48, was born in County Wexford, Ireland. 23-year old Thomas, born in Quebec completes their household. The house is described as a log house.

Then comes Mr. Forrest's trip was at what he calls the house of James McDonagh, aged 44, Church of Scotland, born in County Down, Ireland; his wife Elizabeth, aged 20, born in County Down, Ireland. Children are listed as John (14), Mary (12), Robert (9), Elizabeth (6), James (4), Martha (4), all born in Boston.

Then comes the farm operation of Thomas O'Neill. O'Neill was born in County Carlow, Ireland, in 1798, Church of Scotland, his wife (Church of Scotland) in Londonderry, Ireland, in 1801.

His wife, a member of the ... and was employed as a ... in the ... which his ... to operate the hotel ... property and business in ... premises is described as ... are listed: 20-year old ... old Elizabeth Airt, born ... 15-year old ... 17-year old William Kelly from ... old James Russell from Pakenham.

Immediately next is a "stone house" ... merchant, also of County Carlow, Ireland, aged 44, ... possibly a brother of ... Then is the household of James Ferguson ... both of Perthshire, Scotland, ... Mary (36), Donald (24), Robert (19) and ... in Beckwith Township.

The next family is that of the school teacher, ... from Renfrew, Scotland, his wife Janet and their ...

Then, Edward Burke from Limerick, Ireland, ... (36); his wife Maria and their four children and five ... occupied a stone house, his occupation being that of "the keeper". Burke, like Elliott Johnson, was an English ... and Battalion of Militia.

History of The Township