

sadly wrong³ as we have found out our sorrow & shame. However for the most part communities are generous, opening purses & hearts to those in need or ⁱⁿ sorrow.

Take time for all things - How can we, long ago the sands of time ran much slower than to-day. Now most of us just skim off the cream. We dare not stir up the bucket or we would be training for a race ^{so} may be calm, even tempered & quiet spoken amid all stress.

Grant that we may realize that it is the little thing that create differences - We all want to do the important things and be the big spoke in the wheel but we must remember the wall wasn't built of big stones, the little ones are needed to fill the crevices. Trifles make perfection but perfection is no trifle.

The last clause is the real prayer it sums up the whole total for if we are kind we will keep all the items of the collect in all its phases for kindness is a virtue.
