

An overlooked part of the History of the Kewartha Lakes is often the cottagers whose influx has brought life & prosperity to the area. A large proportion of them are now turning their cottages into homes and retiring around the perimeter of many lakes. The attached booklet contains the biographies of several families who cottage at Big Bald Lake. It also shows how they celebrated the millenium! Beryl Spaul, Tweedsmuir Curator, April 2001.

Buckhorn on Trent

1999 - 2000