

In 1921 John MacDiarmid sold it to Peter M. Mackenzie whose equity in the farm was very small and in 1927 he turned it over to Donald MacKenzie and Florence MacDiarmid who had a substantial interest in it. In 1938 it was sold to John MacFarlane who has operated it as a grass farm ever since.