

The Morrison family continued to live on this farm for many years. The farm became the property of Murdock Jr. In 1930 he moved to Lucknow and bought Alex Ross' harness shop which he continued to operate till the spring of 1955, when he retired and the building was sold to Wm. Schmid who demolished and built a very up to date jewellery store on the site.

The farm is now owned by Stewart McGillivray.

Information from Mrs. Walter MacKenzie

Donald Morrison and Annie MacLeod had five children, Acie (Mrs. Wm. McGill), Elsie (Mrs. Peter Dahmer), Mary (Mrs. George Bell), Murdock and Charles.
