

Mr. & Mrs. Sam Chadwich and daughter Phyllis lived on this farm for seven years. This home is now the Carruther's Nursing Home.

The picture on the left was taken of Phyllis and her parents on her wedding day. She married John Bridal of Moose Jaw, Sask., July, 1953. They now have a family of three girls and three boys.

The Chadwicks came from Windsor March 1, 1947. They had a family of two, a son, John and a daughter Phyllis. Sam was a tool and die workman for the Ford Co. and retained his job there while John and his Mother lived here. Sam died in Jan., 1954. In 1955 the farm was sold to Elliott Carruthers.

Mrs. Chadwick went back to England and John went the following year. John married and is still there. Mrs. Chadwick remarried and is now Mrs. Ted Amos of Radcliffe, Lancashire, England.

John and his mother
(In England)