

N $\frac{1}{2}$ Lot 1 Con. 5 Kinloss Twp.

Alexander Ross and Ann MacLeod left their home-land, Isle of Skye, Scotland and settled in Prince Edward island a short while, and in 1854 came to Ontario and raised a family of four sons and four daughters, John B., John, Donald, Peter, Annie, Mary, Effie, Rachel.

John B. married Emily MacDougall, daughter of Angus MacDougall and Margaret Lamont, also from the Isle of Skye, Scotland. Emily MacDougall's sisters and brothers were, Florence, Effie, Margaret, Mary, Annie, Emily, Laughlin, Angus and John MacDougall.

To this union of John B. Ross and Emily MacDougall were born Mary Anne (Annie); Alexander, now residing with Annie, Mrs. Wm. MacIntyre; Laughlin passed on in 1927; John Donald, an elementary school teacher, now retired and living in Cayuga, Ont.; a daughter, Margaret Ann passed away at the age of one year.