

Carolyn Andrew (centre left) was named Queen of the 134th annual Lucknow Fall Fair Friday night. With her are (from the left) Kristina Johnston, Shelley Joinston, second runnerup;

Carolyn; Charlene Burgess, 1996 Queen of the Fair; Sonia Jones, first runnerup and Sherri McCracken. (Livingston photo)

Summer Reading Review

by Erin Gilchrist, 5,
LCPS Grade 1

Franklin is Lost
by Paulette Bourgeois

Franklin is Lost is a very good book. Franklin is a turtle. Franklin likes to play hide and seek. When Franklin got lost looking for Fox, he was scared. If you want to find out whether Franklin's Mom and Dad find him or not, you better read this book. July 1997

Summer Reading Review

by Jileesa Mali, 6
LCPS

A big Fat Enormous Lie
by Marjorie Weinman Sharmat

This is a story about a little boy who told a lie to his parents about eating the cookies. He imagines the lie is a monster. Read this book to find out what happens to the monster. 199 1997

These gents will form the executive of the Lucknow and District Lions Club for the next year. They include, from the left, back row: Jim Bain, bulletin editor; John Pollard, treasurer; Bob Bergman, tail twister; Tom Hogan, past president and secretary; Donald MacKinnon, Lion tamer. Front row: George Madge, first vice; Dave Eadie, second vice; Barry Johnston, president; Gord Hunt, third vice. Absent: Ambrose Redmond, tail twister; Jim Gibson, Brian Martyn, Roger Pannabecker and Don Irwin, directors. (Livingston photo)

The Lucknow & District Chamber of Commerce's annual Christmas tree lighting was another success last Friday night. Nicole Willits' eyes are all a glitter as she hangs her decoration on the community tree. COC President Pat McKillop assisted Nicole as she climbed to the top of the ladder. (Livingston photo)

Work progresses on history book Jan 1998

by Erlma Haldenby

The Kinloss History Book Committee met on Thursday, at Holyrood to discuss the progress of the book. The committee is looking for someone to edit the Women's Institute histories as there are four institutes in the township. Volunteers welcome!

Letters were read from people answering the notices in the papers and passed on to the correct people.

A workshop will be held Tuesdays for anyone interested and the regular meeting next month on the second Thursday.

MacKenzies home from California

by Ruth Buchmeier

Sympathy goes out to the Downey family on the death of John Downey of Stratford. John was a brother of the late Willard Downey.

Eva Burt is now living in Malcolm Place in Kincardine.

Frank and Muriel MacKenzie have returned home after spending a month with their daughter, Heather and her family, in California.

The WMS of South Kinloss Presbyterian Church met at Pinecrest Nursing Home on Jan. 7. Margaret Collyer and Janie Hamilton were hostesses for this meeting. Directors were Ann MacDougall, Vera Schmidt and Mary McIntosh.

South Kinloss

Jan. 1998
Vice president Ruth Bell opened the meeting with a reading. There were many New Years readings as the rollcall was an item for the program.

Nancy MacIntyre and Margaret Hamilton had everyone play a rhythm band with kitchen utensils.

Ann MacDougall gave the Bible study meditation on Psalm 23.

Vera Schmidt gave the courtesy remarks.

Ruth Bell sang a solo with Rena Forster playing the piano.

The annual WMS Presbyterian will be held in Wingham on Jan. 19.

Graphic design is Ryan's goal

by Ryan Hackett

Hi, my name is Ryan Hackett and I am currently attending F.E. Madill Secondary School. This year I have been given the opportunity to work in the co-operative education program at school. My co-op placement is at McPyatt Advertising, which is located at R.R. #5, Lucknow. Every morning, I work for three hours and return to the school for classes in the afternoon. The reason I chose to work at McPyatt Advertising is because I am interested in doing graphic design in the future.

The design is then sent to a cutter and cut out onto a roll of vinyl. The excess vinyl is stripped away and masking is applied for transferring.

Pat also does sandblasting signs where the process is pretty well the

So far I have enjoyed my co-op experience because I have done various tasks which show what this career is like. I have cut and masked vinyl lettering and objects to be put on signs. I have had the opportunity to put lettering on signs, banners, and mailboxes for customers and designed signs on the computer. I have also put blasting mask on signs to be sandblasted and painted them.

This co-op placement has been an enjoyable experience so far and I am learning a lot about this career field. Pat has helped me learn and understand what the work force and this career field has to offer. It has been a really good learning experience for me and I really enjoy it.

In the future, I plan to attend college and further my education as a graphic designer because it seems to me like a interesting field to be working in.

My employer is Pat McKillop who is the owner/operator of the business. Pat makes many types of signs using vinyl or sandblasting; applies vinyl lettering on vehicles, and designs logos and ads, business cards, and invoices.

First she makes her design on the computer,

The design is done on the computer and then sent to a cutter where it is cut on a sheet of blasting mask. The excess masking is stripped away and placed on the wooden sign ready to be blasted. The sign is sent away to be blasted and returned so it can be painted.