

AT ONE MEETING THE MEMBERS TOLD A SAYING OF THEIR MOTHERS.

Some were

- < Eat your fish it's brain food.
- < A stitch in time, saves nine
- < When you make your bed you have to lie in it.
- < Don't let the sun go down on your wrath
- < If you can stay out late ,you can get up in the morning
- < It is Puppy love
- < If I have to go up there!!
- < Yoohoo come and eat
- < If you are as good as your looks you will be okay
- < Oh! Mercy

When we complained about a pain she would say
IT will pass, it most time did.

Losh Me

My Mother always referred to someone especially a man
As old Mr. So & so. I said one day "Why do you say old
They are not as old as you.?" She still referred to Them as old.

Because I said so, that's why!!

When you grow up & get your own place, I'm going to Come over and jump on your furniture.

Don't do that with your face or it will stay that way.

I hope your children turn out just like you.

Just wait till you have kids.

When I feel like work I just sit down till the Feeling goes away.
