

PRESBYTERIAN PAGES FROM THE PRIOR

Rev. Dr. Leo and Mrs. Margaret Hughes Retire

LEO AND MARGARET PACK IT IN - AND PACK THEIR BAGS!

After thirty-five years of dedicated service to their congregations and communities, thirty-one of these years of service in Arnprior and Lochwinnoch areas, they have decided to focus on their family and themselves. As of tomorrow, Sunday, April 26, 1998, they will be packing in their work in the ministry in a formal way, but you and I both know they will never give up their work in the church. On Monday, they will be packing their bags in readiness for an upcoming trip to Scotland.

Before they leave for Scotland, they will, no doubt, spend time with their six children and spouses, and six grandchildren. If there is anything that will speed up their return from Scotland, it will be the missing of and magnetism of these children and grandchildren. Leo will certainly be in a hurry to get back to take more computer lessons from his grandchildren.

Leo the athlete - Is Leo an athlete? When you hear him speak of the Senators, the Expos or his beloved Leafs, you would think perhaps that Leo was an active athlete. Actually, he is somewhat of an armchair critic; although he did coach minor hockey for some years and swings his golf clubs on occasion. Margaret is the athlete. It has been noted that she is an active aquatics participant. Is Leo the athlete or is it Margaret?

Travelling has been an important part of their life. They have travelled extensively to the Holy Land, the Mediterranean, Europe, Japan, Australia and the
