Constable Ron Rimnyak (left) and Constable Pascale Guenette, with the RCMP detachment in Owen Sound, were guests of the various groups in the Lucknow Scouting Association last week. Constable Rimnyak said they enjoy the opportunity to talk to youngsters and explained that during the public relations event they focus on such things as the law, RCMP tradition, history and uniforms. Constable Pascale is in her first year as an RCMP. She had a six month boot camp period at Regina and was subsequently posted to recruit field training. Pictured with the RCMP are Scouts Jordan Andrew, Ean Moffat and Matthew Selkirk. (Pat Livingston photo)
