

Jim Reed has returned to his roots in Huron County after a long career as a highly-visible broadcast journalist. (Tim Cumming photo)

Andy Burgess, Lucknow's community oriented police officer, who is a resident of Kincardine, was voted as that town's 1992 Citizen of the Year. A senior constable with the Kincardine OPP, Mr. Burgess is known for donating his time to the youth of the area as well as numerous recreation projects. (Bev Fry photo)

Bill Hunter (left), a member of the Lucknow and District Lions Club, was named a Melvin Jones Fellow on Saturday evening. The award is the highest conferred by Lions International and is bestowed upon those who exemplify dedicated humanitarian services. Making the presentation is Vern Job, District Governor elect. (Pat Livingston photo)

Betty O'Donnell was one of the Lucknow and District painting class members exhibiting paintings at the Town Hall on Monday. Mrs. O'Donnell says she has been a member on and off since 1985. The seven students use the open house as a wrap-up event for the season. (Pat Livingston photo)