

International Affairs theme for Malcolm Women's Institute meeting

The Malcolm W. I. met at the Fire Hall in Elmwood on January 19 with International Affairs Committee in charge of the program.

The Vice President, Wanda Toman opened the meeting by welcoming 18 members and a few of the husbands along to hear the guest speaker.

The Mary Stewart Collect and Ode were repeated in unison. The Roll Call was 'name a country and its leader'. The Scripture, Psalm 46, was read by Marge Wickens. The guest speaker and wife - Mr. & Mrs. Jim Boynton were introduced by Lois Ahrens.

Jim showed slides of their trip to the British Isles last year. He had a very interesting commentary on each country. The Boyntons' were thanked by Marg McCreedy and a basket of fruit was given in appreciation.

Lunch was served with the business part of the meeting following. Barb Klages, president, presided over the business. Treasurers and secretary's reports were given and business arising from these reports discussed.

Happy Birthday was sung to December and January birthday members. Helen Musehl gave a very interesting neighborly news report and Lois Ahrens and a contest to end the evening.

Next meeting is February 16 on Consumer Affairs, with a sewing demonstration by Cathy Erwin. Come out and join us.

Pres. Margaret McCreedy presented the gift.

