

re. Town Hall

Utilities Commission, a "Furnace room" and a well finished room, brightly lighted and capable of seating 50 or more persons, for the smaller type of public gatherings.

The continued popularity of this structure has abated to some extent by the erection of our other lovely structures but it still enjoys a great amount of patronage and its ready access will, no doubt, go far to maintain its attractiveness as a suitable place for public usefulness.