Margaret Knox Calvin Gray Wed

Allenford Parsonage Scene of Early June Bridal

The marriage took place at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, June 3, at the United Church Parsonage, Allenford, of Margaret, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knox of Allenford, to Calvin G. Gray, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gray of Shallow Lake, Rev. A. Hewitt officiating.

The bride wore a street length frock of heaven blue miracle crepe with a corsage of Talisman roses. She also wore the groom's gift, a yellow gold wrist watch. Miss Kathleen Knox was her sister's bridesmaid and wore a street length frock of rose typhoon crepe with corsage of roses. Lloyd Stevenson was best man. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a compact and to the best man a gold collar pin and tie set.

Following the ceremony dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, the guests being the immediate relatives, including the grandparents of the bridal couple. The table was prettily decorated with white and pink streamers and was centred with the three-storey wedding cake, over which hung a white wedding bell.

The happy couple left for a motor trip to Kitchener, Toronto and Hamilton, the bride travelling in a tweed coat, blue hat and navy accessories.

On their return they will reside at Park Head.
