

Exchange Vows

Rev. A.F. Gardiner heard the marriage vows recently of Marie Elizabeth Walsh, daughter of Mr and Mrs Ross Baumber, RR 4, Tara, and Kenneth Lawrence Philp, son of Mr and Mrs Keith Philp, RR 3, Allenford. Ferns and yellow roses adorned the interior of North Derby United Church for the double ring ceremony.

Miss Leone Philp was organist and Miss Lois McCulloch was soloist for the occasion.

The bride chose a gown featuring a high ruffled neck, above a bodice accented with a chantilly lace V design and sheer gathered sleeves with lace decorated cuffs. The floor length self train flowed to a lace accent upon the lower hem. An elbow length veil fell from a Juliet style cap and a cascade of yellow roses, white shasta daisies and stephanotis completed the attire.

Miss Brenda Hewitson was maid of honour and Misses Donna and Lynn Baumber, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Wanda Farrow, niece of the groom, was flower girl. The bridesmaids wore yellow pastel floral print gowns with high stand up collars and puff sleeves. The A-line skirts were accented with yellow semi-self ties at the back and they wore picture hats of white. The maid of honour and flower girl wore similar attire in blue. All the attendants carried baskets of shasta daisies offset with star flowers.

The groomsmen were Ron Philp, cousin of the groom, and the ushers were Murray Philp, brother of the groom, and Keith Baumber, brother of the bride.

The couple will be residing at RR 5, Owen Sound.

Couple Travel To Nova Scotia On Honeymoon

The marriage was solemnized in Danforth United Church, Toronto, on Saturday, March 7th, at 2 p.m., of Josephine Elaine Warmington, daughter of Mr. Leslie Warmington of Allenford and the late Mrs. Warmington, to Herbert Lorne Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell of Glace Bay, Nova Scotia. The Rev. V. Stanley Bland officiated and Mrs. Lorne Holmes played the wedding music.

Mr. Warmington gave his daughter in marriage and she was wearing an ankle length gown of white taffeta veiled in nylon lace, a fingertip veil of net, white satin slippers and carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Michael Semenciw, as matron of honor, who wore a lime green ankle length gown of taffeta and lace with shoulder veil, lime green slippers and bouquet of pink and yellow gladioli. Lynda Semenciw, niece of the bride, was flower girl in a blue taffeta and lace gown with a flower band in her hair and carrying a nosegay of pink and blue violets.

Mr. Michael Semenciw was groomsmen and the bride's brother, Mr. Floyd Warmington, ushered.

The reception was held at 74 Wolfray Ave., Toronto, where pink flowers decorated the rooms and streamers of white and blue canopied the table centred the wedding cake flanked by white candies. Miss A. Leithwood and Miss O. Leithwood were the assistants.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip to Glace Bay, Nova Scotia, the bride wore blue gabardine suit with navy accessories and pink carnation corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside at 24 Athletic Street.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mr. Leslie Warmington, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Warmington, Mr. Lorne Warmington, Miss Emma Warmington, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Mac McDonald, Mrs. Leonard Millman, Miss Elvite Millman, Mr. Jack Diebel and Miss Dorothy McDonald, of Allenford, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Warmington, of Owen Sound.

(U-2) 320

(U-2) 32