Cold feet

OUCH!—Cargill skaters who participated in an eight hour skate-a-thon on Saturday complained of aching leg muscles and sore feet at the end of the gruelling ordeal.

Andrew Garland found the best way to warm a cold foot was by using his hands. (Wassink photo)
