

First Resident

Warton E. Brown a member of the Bruce County home committee pinned a corsage on Mrs. K. Griffiths, first member to take up residence at Gateway Haven in Warton. The honour was bestowed upon Mrs. Griffiths at a ceremony held to present 14 graduates of a course in nursing helpers held last Thursday at the home.

Five life members of the Oliphant Women's Institute attended a recent meeting. Standing from the left are Mrs. Wm. McKenzie, Mrs. John Winskill, and Mrs. Earl Crandon. Seated are Mrs. Jas Hyatt and Mrs. Clayton Davidson. The Oliphant branch was organized on May 17, 1917 in the Oliphant Methodist Church. Their main objective then was to assist in the World War I war effort. On the first executive were: Pres.-Mrs. John Walsh, 1st Vice-Pres.-Mrs. Wm. Moore; 2nd Vice-Pres.-Mrs. Cecil Swale; Sec.-Treas.-Mrs. Murdock McKenzie; Directors -Mrs. Alex Moore, Mrs. John Fox and Mrs. W. H. Wright. There was a membership of 25. Mrs. Hyatt and Mrs. Winskill are charter members.

S. S. No. 2 Eastnor, 1903

Front Row left to right: Byron Bray, Fred Ceasar, Wesley Bray, Earnie McMaster, Irene Warder, Mac Ceasar, Ethel Hayes, Clara Ceasar, Ruby Archer, Laura Slocum.
Second Row: John Fowlie, Ray Cameron, Albert Bray, Geo. Chambers (Teacher) Herman Slocum, Bert Warder, Jean McMaster, Ettie McMaster.

Courtesy of Russell Ceasar.

Third Row: Sandy Fowlie, Jack Gillies, Bill Slocum, Art Slocum, Mary McMaster, Jessie Kayes, Mary Brown, Pearl Cameron, Emma Brown.