Kain-Williamson Ceremony In Wiarion Church

White roses were on the altar of Trinity Anglican Church, Wiarion, urns were filled with gladioli and chrysanthemums and tall white candles were in wrought iron candelabra for the marriage on Saturday, July 25th at 11 a.m. of Margaret Jean Williamson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Williamson of Wiarion to Lawrence Iuon Kain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kain of North Keppel. The pews for 150 guests were marked with lace containers holding blue and white cornflowers tied with white satin bows. Officiating clergy were Rev. Donald Dorrity, Buffalo N.Y., Rev. Robert Crocker, Sarnia and Rev. Robert Scoun, Wiarion. Mrs. Angus MacMillan of Waterdown played the wedding music.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of silk organza trimmed with Swiss lace applique, the bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train accented with organza bows. A pearl trimmed headpiece held her illusion veil. She wore Swiss lace mittens and carried a lace covered Bible crested with white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Mary Ellen Schenk, of Kitchener was maid of honor. Miss Mary Rae and Miss Lynne Kain of Wiarion were bridesmaids and Miss Susac Schoonover, of Lakewood, Ohio was junior bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in blue and white dotted organza with blue velvet bow ending in streamers to the hem of the skirt. Their hats were of blue veiling with matching velvet bows and they carried nosegays of shaggy white carnations and blue cornflowers tied with blue velvet.

Mr. Robert Robinson of Barrie was groomsmen. The ushers were Mr. Bruce Nickel, of Camlachie, Ontario, Mr. Jack Williamson, Dominion Republic and Mr. John Kellough, Toronto.

A garden reception was held at the family home, the bride's mother receiving in a beige linen dress trimmed with lace, matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Assisting, the bridegroom's mother wore a flowered brocaded pale green suit with matching accessories and corsage of Joanna Hill roses. White gladioli, chrysanthemums and roses adorned house and garden. The wedding cake misted in tulle, pink tapers in silver candelabra and white roses were on the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. Kain will reside at Whitby. For the wedding trip through southern Ontario by motor, the bride wore a beige linen suit with mohair lace hat, matching accessories and green orchid corsage.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Griczmil, British Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Maier, St. Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hills, Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Paterson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. T.
