

Dec. 9, 1976

Awards were given to students at Warton Public School Tuesday for their achievements in the Remembrance Day Poem and Essay Contest sponsored by the Warton Legion. Receiving awards were front row, Pat Brennan, Lea Morgan, Della Weir, Sharon Kerr, Shirley Weir and Ron Fletcher, second row, Suzy McCaw, Connie Cunningham, Rachel Hepburn, Lynda Carlson, Michelle

Boyd, Sandy Currie, Cathy Cook. Third row, Jim Nixon, Tim McCoy, John Bullen, Mark Vanderheyden and Dianne Ackert. Presenting the awards were Principal A.J.V. Leeder, Jane Wallington, Betty Gilbert, Milt Wyonch and Cliff Gilbert.

Takes over business

Dec. 9, 1976

HERMAN URBSHOTT

Herman Urbshott took over the Gulf Service Station on the corner of Frank and Berford Streets from Bill Johnston at the beginning of the month.

Mr. Urbshott was formerly manager of that service station.

He has added a new member to the staff, mechanic Bev Moles from Hepworth, who previously worked for Canadian Tire in Toronto for four years.

Mr. Johnston will continue to operate his oil business.

Albemarle

Two incumbents and one newcomer have been elected to Albemarle Township council.

Councillor William Hepburn received 293 votes and Wilfred Ashcroft, 241. Newcomer Douglas Thompson received 217 votes. Councillor Hepburn has served for six years and Councillor Ashcroft for four.

The two defeated challengers are Isobel Hardman, 173 votes and Margaret Wheeler, 149 votes.

Reeve James Given and Deputy-Reeve Roy Bullen were acclaimed.

Vol 12 Pg 4