Purple Valley Happenings

Dec 16 1976

(by Audrey Hepburn)

-Mr. and Mrs. Will Crawford, Colpoys Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Crawford, Hamilton were recent visitors with Edythe and Grenville Crawford.

-Thursday evening, December 9th, Purple Valley W.I. members and guests met at the home of Mrs. Gail Gilbert for their Christmas meeting. Sally had the house beautifully decorated for the holiday season with a tree and lights and all. Roll call was a traditional Christmas dish and was answered by everyone present. Business was carried on as usual with some discussion about the Maple Syrup Festival and the Christmas concert. A gift exchange followed after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess and her daughters, Debbie and Tracy.

-Did you ever have to explain why you had a black eye? At first I was going to blame Bill and say he hit me. No, it wasn't caused by walking into a door after Saturday night's party, because it happened on Wednesday. Actually, I had a collision with our Irish Setter dog. I knew you wouldn't believe that one either so I won't make up anymore excuses.

-Robert Urbshott celebrated his ninth birthday Sunday, December 12th. Arthur Ward, Mar, visited with him over the weekend.

-Quite a number from this area enjoyed the hospitality of Shirley and Roy Bullen, Red Bay Lodge, at the second annual Christmas party held for the employees of Albemarle Township and those who work to see the township runs smoothly and don't get too many thanks for their efforts the rest of the year: for example the sanitary engineers and fire wardens. A social hour was spent after which we enjoyed a delicious buffet supper. Then who should appear but jolly old Santa, passing out the presents from under the tree. Did you notice that Jean Hotham rated the biggest hug and kiss when her name was called? Dancing followed to the music of the Northern Lites and everyone went home agreeing we should meet again next year.
