-The stormy weather presented area school children with some unexpected holidays last week.
-Friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Clifford and Sharon Gilbert to honour Betty and Clifford Gilbert on the occasion of their thirty fifth wedding anniversary. January 15, 1944 was the day of the wedding in Rugby, England thirty five years ago. Cards and crokinole were enjoyed by the guests and a delicious lunch and coffee was served by Sharon, topped by anniversary cake baked and decorated by Joyce Doherty. We wish you years and years of happiness Betty and Clifford.

-very successful turnout at their cookout on Saturday evening.
-Monday and Wednesday January 22 and 24 are the dates for training school for the new 4-H project "Accessories - The Final Touch." Mrs. Terry Johnston and Mrs. Audrey Hepburn will be the leaders. Why not enrol your son or daughter? It sounds like an interesting club.
-Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Gladys Fee and the McCartney family. Joe will be sadly missed by his many friends at Williamsford, Owen Sound, Wiarton and Purple Valley.

early Sunday morning and drove to Hamilton to visit with Joyce and Charlie Crawford for the day. We also had a short visit with Doug and Jewel Crawford and boys, Marc and Sean. Everyone is fine there and busy working as usual.

-There was a jingling of sleigh bells and the creak of sleigh runners on frosty snow on Saturday evening when Gail and Sally Gilbert invited some thirty friends and neighbours to come for a ride. Just to keep the teams in practise. Cards and games were enjoyed afterwards and Sally, Debbie and Tracy erved cake and hot chocolate.
