

Jennifer
Harrison

January
19, 1986

Canada.

asonally adjusted unem-
rate — the percentage dians available for work not find a job — drop-cent, a full percenta-w what it was a year a-ade below what it was lier.

opposition critics were r words. Herb Gray of tointed to the actual numbians looking for work
— about 780,000
to the Statistics Cana-as evidence that the C-budget was "wro-
because it would increament.

ain comment from the Ns came as part of the t road show. Release de-unemployment figures advance so the NDP leaously timed a proposal foloyment act" for a Hali-n the day the Decem-came out.

s a connection, of courgovernment policies ment. But it is neither

OOPS — A young member of the Lions Twirlettes loses her baton on the ice during a routine in the winter carnival variety night program. An estimated 1,500 attended the event which was highlighted by the crowning of Tina Frillman as winter carnival queen.

Vol 17 Pg 8