Purple Valley news

(by Audrey Hepburn)

-Mrs. Eva Gilbert recently completed another beautiful quilt with the help of her neighbour ladies. This week she has in the frames the last quilt she plans to make this winter. Come and help her finish it.

-Purple Valley Community Centre will be the meeting place for the Maple Syrup Festival Committee on February 6th Wednesday evening at 8:00. Come and help make plans for this year's festival.

-Bev King's sister and her husband were guests of Bev and Art King on the weekend and attended the farewell dance for the VanKooy family in Wiarton on Friday evening.

-Sunday evening guests with Bill and I were Ted and Gay Ratcliffe, Hope Bay.

-Mrs. Annie Hoy, Sault Ste. Marie, arrived in Wiarton on Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs. Elda Hepburn. Elda and Annie are leaving Saturday for a month long bus trip to Florida and the warm sunshine.

-Led by Blaine Gilbert on his snowmobile, eight cadets and their captain Jerry Mann from the Kitchener-Waterloo Cadet Corps skied into the Gilbert's hunt camp on the weekend. Kim and Kevin Gilbert went along too, and tried out their new Christmas skis.

-Winners at the euchre on Saturday evening were Mrs. Dora Misener for euchres; Mrs. Reta Schultz for moves; lone hands, Bill Hepburn and Audrey Hepburn took the consolation prize. Watch for notice of next month's euchre.
