

Except for a hailstorm in the afternoon, it was so warm and sunny at the Festival that Bailey, the Golden Retriever, flicked on a pair of shades. Actually he had help from sisters Suzanne and Jennifer Talt of Oxenden and Kitchener. Their father said he's been coming to the Festival for 18 of the 19 years it's been going.

A couple of the most colourful participants in the log sawing contest were Bill Hepburn (left) and Harold Wright of Purple Valley. (Photos by Reg. Moore).