

has been or ever can be given to women show that of the homemaker and citizen builder. In the midst of her own rich and full home life, she did noble pioneer work for homemaker education in Canada and its present development is in a large measure due to her tireless promotion of its claims, and the scope of her ideals.

Mrs W. B. Steele.

In 1937 the Women's Institutes of North and South Brant in commemoration of her birthplace in the county erected a cairn at the junction of Highways No 5 and 24 across the corner from the family home. The inscription on the cairn reads thusly

"To commemorate the birthplace of Adelaide Hunter Hoodless, 1858-1910, who founded the Women's Institute on February 19, 1897. Erected by the Women's Institutes of Brant County."

E. B.

In February 1953, Mr J. B. Hoodless left a bequest in memory of his mother, Mrs Adelaide Hoodless to the O. A. C. Guelph. Said bequest amounting to $6710.00 to be used for a scholarship fund in Home Economics for rural girls.

Birthplace of Adelaide Hunter Hoodless, founder of the Women's Institute—a white frame house near the junction of Highways 24 and 5 south of Galt, Ont.

