

Memorial Cairn

Adelaide Hunter Hoodless.

Shown beside the cairn at the birthplace of Adelaide Hunter Hoodless, founder of the world Women's Institute movement near St. George, Ontario, are three members of the local WI: Mrs. J. A. Charlton, Mrs. M. M. Moore and Mrs. E. R. Hunt. The cairn, erected by the WI of Brant County as well as other buildings of historical interest in the St. George-Stoney Creek district, will be visited by many of the delegates who will be attending the Associated Country Women of the World conference to be held in Toronto for two weeks during August. (Photo by the Department of Highways.) 1953
