

A BETTER ME

The me I wish that I could be, would never harm a soul
 Could never speak in angry tones, or have a selfish goal;
 And no more wrongs or harmful deeds, I'd ever want to do
 If this perfect ideal me could be a picture true.
 The me I wish I could become will never really be,
 But simply wanting such a thing will make a better me.

A RULE OF THREE

Three things to govern: temper, tongue and conduct.
 Three things to cultivate: courage, affection and gentleness.
 Three things to command: thrift, industry and promptness.
 Three things to despise: cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.
 Three things to wish for: health, gracefulness and intellectual power
 Three things to give: alms to the needy, comfort to the sad
 And appreciation to the worthy.
