

Tornado Strikes Farm Near Hanover

This is the view of Marg and Bryan Crispin's farm "the day after the Tornado struck" . . . and volunteer workers and family set out to cleanup the huge mess. The storm hit this area on Tuesday Night, June 14th, 2005 (around 7:30 p.m.) and completely wiped out the Crispin barn, as well as a maple tree located on their front lawn.
