

Walkerton Juniors Win Drama Festival

By Record Staff Writer

TEESWATER — With their one-act play, The Income Tax, Walkerton Junior Farmers won the county drama festival here last night and as well took the awards for best actor and best actress.

Diane Noll was named best actress by adjudicator John Marriott of the Goderich Little Theatre Group and another Walkerton club member Francis Zettler was judged best actor. Other cast members were Evelyn Abell, Gerald Chesney and Wesley Abell. Mrs. Carl Remus was the director of the winning play.

Robert Ireland of Teeswater was named best supporting actor and Annie Gowanlock of Port Elgin best supporting actress.

Port Elgin presented The Bishop's Candlesticks. Other cast members were Donald Fenton, Wayne Lamb, Ruth Ann Jones, William Jeffrey, Allan Reoch and Ross Ribey. The Port Elgin play was directed by Mrs. Reginald Carter and Mrs. Gordon Lewis.

John Loves Mary, the Teeswater play, was directed by Mrs. Sydney Smith. Other cast members were Sharon Edwards, Aire Niesen, Brian Ireland, Arthur McKague, Donald Stobo, Marian Rattan, Julien Smith, Alex Verbeek and Phyllis Donaldson.

In winning last night the Walkerton club broke a three-year grip Teeswater had on the trophy. Last year Teeswater was the provincial winner.

WINNING CAST—Walkerton swept all top awards at the Bruce County junior farmer festival. Shown are (left to right, standing) Diane Noll, best actress; Francis Zettler, best actor; Wesley Abell and Gerald Chesney, and (seated) Evelyn Abell. Record Photo

1964