

V5-21

The Bruce County Dairy Princess Competition was held in conjunction with the Bruce County Holstein Club Dance at the Teeswater Community Centre on Saturday, November 20, 1982. Each contestant was interviewed by a panel of judges and made a short speech to the public on a topic relating to dairying in Bruce County.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Brenda Trask who works for the Ontario Milk Marketing Board and was a former Ontario Dairy Princess. Brenda introduced the six contestants:

- Joanne Bregman, Teeswater
 - Joanne Grubb, Mildmay
 - Nancy Henhoeffer, Teeswater
 - Anne Hundt, Walkerton
 - Janice Needham, Ripley
 - Kathy Weppler, Port Elgin
- Judges for the competition were Joanne Weber, William Greston and Herman Herold.

Miss Kathy Weppler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Weppler of Port Elgin was crowned the 1983 Bruce County Dairy Princess by Dianne Clarke, 1982 Bruce County Dairy Princess. Kathy was also presented with a sash by Glenna Howley, 1983 Ontario Dairy Princess.

Runner-up was Anne Hundt, Walkerton. Miss Joanne Grubb was the winner of the congeniality awards. Joanne was picked by her fellow contestants. Congratulations to all the contestants on a job well done.

Kathy will be representing the dairy farmers of Bruce County for the next year and will compete at the CNE in August for the title of Ontario Dairy Princess. If you would like Kathy to attend one of your functions, representing the dairy farmers of Bruce County, please contact Mrs. Lois (Donald) Craig, Kincardine.

Kathy Weppler Crowned Bruce's Dairy Princess

Miss Weppler and Runner-Up Anne Hundt (right) of Walkerton pose following the crowning last week

Dianne Clark (front right) was chosen as the 1981-82 Bruce County Dairy Princess at a recent competition held at Walkerton. Anne Hundt (front left) was named as the runner-up. Others vieing for the crown were (back row, left to right) - Barb Stroeder, Geraldine Conroy and Karen Weppler