

STILL SKATING AT 79 — Mrs. Mel Black is seen above as she took part in the Port Elgin ice show presenting Petra Burk with a Bruce County tartan figure skating skirt. With her is Christine Haraldson, 3, the club's youngest skater.

(Sun-Times Staff Photo)

THE ANNUAL FALL FAIR got off to a good start with the parade at 1:00 o'clock last Saturday. The most colorful float was the one seen above presented by the South Saugeen W.I. advertising the proposed Saugeen's Centennial Park. The number of entries in the parade was down from last year. About 3,000 people attended the event for a day's fun. —PET Photo

1965

Flower Show Best In Years At Port Elgin Fall Fair

The main prize winners of the most successful Fall Fair held in Port Elgin are as follows:

First prize float, Saugeen Women's Institute; second prize, William Miller, General Electric float; third prize, Country Sisters' Club.

A six-horse team, owned by Andy Catto, was a feature of the parade.

Winners in the heavy horse class were: Charles Halliday, in the Stake Class; for the best heavy horse on the grounds, Russell Teeple, Paisley; Ross McKague of Teeswater; George Gregg and Andy Catto of Paisley.

Prize winners in the Cattle classes were: Gordon L. Ribey, Underwood, and Nelson Howe, Paisley.

J. M. Hanbidge was the winner of the best bushel of grain and received the prize donated by the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce.

This year's flower show was the best seen in years at the Port Elgin Fair. Prizes went to James Dadson, Mrs. Howard Rae, Mrs. Audrey Rolston, Mrs. Lawrence Miller and Mrs. Robert Scott.

Winners in the baking and canning class were Mrs. Bev. Robertson, Mrs. Earl Hyde and Mrs. Chas. Drummond.

Prize winners in the Arts and Crafts were Mrs. Audrey Rolston, Mrs. Mary Allan and Mrs. Ralph Thede.

Mrs. Robert Scott was the winner of the Garden Club. Mrs. Melvin Black was the winner of the Swedish weaving class. Mrs. Black won first prize in this class at the C.N.E. in the over 70 class.

Winner of the Beef Weight Guessing Contest was Ray Gregg.

Winner of the oldest person on the grounds was Mr. Louis Krauth. Winner of the person from the farthest distance was Mrs. Ethel McArthur from Miami, Florida.

Clan president from Scotland at reunion

A special gathering of the Lamont clan was held in Hanover to welcome Jean Lamont Caskie of Argyll, Scotland, president of the Clan Lamont Society who is on a visit to Canada to meet members of the clan.

Guests attended from points as far distant as Toronto, Michigan, Wallaceburg, Hamilton, Milton, Ottawa, Colborne, Montreal, Guelph, Brampton, Ajax, St. Pauls, Exeter, Owen Sound and surrounding area.

Following the buffet dinner, Miss Caskie was introduced by president, Dr. Thomas Lamont of Wallaceburg. She gave an interesting talk on clan affairs and played a tape brought with her from Scotland. It was a ceremony in which Toward Castle, near Dunoon, was returned to the Lamonts after 326 years and told of plans for its restoration and preservation.

Miss Caskie was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Caskie of Glasgow. Miss Caskie was presented with a gift and corsage prior to leaving for the west coast.

Miss Caskie invited members to visit her in "Lamont Country" in Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Lamont with their daughter Norma who was home from Ottawa for the weekend accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Turner Lamont attended the Lamont Re-union which was held at the fire hall in Hanover on Sunday with over 60 in attendance. Relatives were present from Scotland, Toronto, Woodstock, Owen Sound and Bracebridge, Ottawa and other points. Miss Flora Lamont who attended school in Port Elgin and has resided in Montreal for 40 years was also present.

