

Record crowds predicted if weather co-operates

Part of the tented city from the parking lot

Photos by
Kathy Cook

Mr. Brunton, Head of the Bruce County Local Commission for the 1976 International Plowing Match is at the microphone, with Lord Elgin to his immediate right, at the official opening of the match, on Tuesday afternoon. Lord Elgin gave the speech to open the match.

Stationed near one of the entrances were Ken Fournier's two Hereford bullocks, who are fourteen years old, weigh one ton each, and are named Rock and Rye.

