

Weddings

Irwin-Scott 1969

The United Brethren in Christ Church, North Bruce was the setting on Saturday, November 15, when Lynda Mae Scott became the bride of William Steven (Steve) Irwin. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Scott, R.R. 1, Port Elgin, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Irwin, R.R. 2 Paisley.

White satin bows and pink roses marked the guest pews, while yellow chrysanthemums, and white candelabra adorned the altar for the 12:00 a.m. service. Rev. Martin Magnus officiated.

Miss Marilyn Smith was organist and the soloist Miss Judy Heintz, sang "The Lord's Prayer" after the wedding vows and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a fitted gown of satin Chantilly lace bodice, overskirt and long sleeves. Her long detachable train was also adorned with matching lace. Sequins trimmed neckline, hem, and train. A tiny crown of pearls held her four-tier shoulder-length veil and she carried red roses with white streamers.

Miss Marilyn McCulloch was Maid of Honour, Miss Freida Scott, sister of the bride and Miss Irene Irwin, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

They wore identical floor-length gowns of yellow satin with silk chiffon sleeves. The cuffs and Peter Pan collars were traced with white lace. The empire waist was circled with white satin ribbon, tied in a bow with long flowing streamers in front.

They carried nosegays of mauve and white baby mums.

The groomsmen were Brian Gilchrist and the ushers were Ross Scott and Roydon Irwin, brothers of the bride and groom respectively.

The reception was held in the church basement with Rev. Martin Magnus acting as Master of Ceremonies.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls the bride chose a coat of brown poplin with turquoise trim, turquoise dress with contrasting print tie and brown accessories.

Guests were present from Summerland, B.C., North Towanwanda, N.Y., Stratford, Southampton, Port Elgin, Stevensville, Ayr, Scarborough, Owen Sound and Paisley.
