

Sieffert - Cooper Nuptials

1970

Ida Doreen Cooper, Hamilton, became the bride of George Lyverne Sieffert, Hamilton, in St. Columba Presbyterian Church, Hamilton, Saturday, November 14th at four o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Thomas Caldwell heard the marriage vows. Mrs. Fred Alexander was organist and Mrs. Muriel Caldwell sang. Pots of yellow daisies decorated the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooper of Hamilton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sieffert, R. R. 1, Port Elgin.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with scalloped lace around the neckline. The gown was enhanced by a white lace bodice, long sleeves with lace cuffs and it featured a short square-cut train. She wore a three-layered veil with scalloped edges and carried red roses.

Mrs. Brian Morris was matron of honour and the bridesmaids were Miss Jean Douglas, Miss Joan Wicks and Miss Donna Sieffert. They wore identical gowns of dark green velvet and lime green lace with long sleeves and carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

James Sieffert, brother of the groom, R. R. 1, Port Elgin was best man and ushers were Al Avery of Streetsville, Paul Cooper of Hamilton and Ross Green of Hamilton.

A reception was held at the City Motor Hotel at 6:30 P.M. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a rose pink long sleeved crepe dress with pink and silver brocade sleeveless coat and silver accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother assisted wearing a pink polyester peau dress and coat ensemble with silver accessories and a white orchid corsage.

For a wedding trip to Ottawa, the bride donned a blue and gold dress and coat ensemble in a quilted effect. She wore gold accessories.

The couple will live at 55 Victoria South in Hamilton.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Jeremiah Wicks of Newfoundland. Other guests were from Boston, Hartwick, New York, Owen Sound, Uxbridge, Toronto, Kitchener, Walkerton, Pinkerton, Mount Forest, St. Catharines and Port Elgin.

Prior to her marriage the bride was guest of honour at a trousseau tea given by her mother and several showers were given by friends and the staff of the Welfare Office in Hamilton where she was employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald R. R. 5, Paisley, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Anna Elizabeth to John Edmund Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith, R. R. 1, Port Elgin. The wedding will take place on Saturday, July 22nd, 1972 at 2 o'clock in Talmie Memorial Presbyterian Church, Port Elgin. 27-p

ROBERTS-SUTHERLAND Noon Wedding

Twelve o'clock noon on September 11, 1971 was the time chosen for a lovely wedding in the Port Elgin United Church when Rev. Ross Cumming officiated at the ceremony to unite Sandra Jane Sutherland and Raymond Pryce Roberts in marriage.

Sandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sutherland, of Port Elgin, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Edith Roberts of Merthyr Tydfil, Glamorgan, Wales.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, walked down the aisle of the beautifully decorated church, to the music of the organ played by Mrs. Allan McKenzie. Mr. William Reany was soloist.

A white silk organza gown was chosen by the bride and with this there was a matching train and shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of orange can-can roses.

Miss Sharon Hillis, the maid of honour, was gowned in yellow organza over taffeta, with a matching head piece and carried yellow and bronze mums.

A niece of the bride, Miss Susan Sutherland, was flower girl wearing a gown similar to the maid of honour and she carried a nosegay.

Mr. Thomas Evans attended the groom and the ushers were Donald and Douglas Sutherland, brothers of the bride.

A lovely reception was held at the Travellers Restaurant where the bride's mother received the guests. She wore a copen blue antique silk gown with bead trimming and matching headpiece. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The groom's mother assisted, wearing a turquoise dress with matching hat and black accessories. With this she wore a corsage of yellow roses.

For a wedding trip to Eastern Ontario and Quebec, the bride chose a pale blue knitted suit with black accessories and she wore a corsage of red roses.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will reside at 75 Paisley Blvd. West, Mississauga.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Toronto, Mississauga, Port Credit, Paisley, Orangeville, Teeswater, Ottawa, Owen Sound.

Prior to this wedding, a number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Will Williams on Wednesday September 8th, to honour the bride. The evening was spent in games and contests and the presentation of a painting and set of stacking stools. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess and helpers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lawrie, R. R. 5, Paisley, wish to announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Marjorie Ann, to Mr. William Martin Kulik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kulik, Toronto. The marriage to take place on November 18th, 1972 at 4:00 p.m., in Wesley United Church, North Bruce, Ontario. 43-p

KULIK - LAWRIE Exchange Vows

1972

Baskets of white mums and red carnations and pews marked with red and white roses decorated the Wesley United Church at the candle light wedding ceremony of Marjorie Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lawrie R. R. #5, Paisley and William Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kulik, Toronto, Ontario, Rev. Ross Cumming of Port Elgin United Church officiated by Mr. G. F. McAuslan of Wesley Church officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony on November 18, 1972.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white velvet gown with empire waist, floor-length styling. It was trimmed with white lace with an inset of red velvet ribbon. The gown had a stand-up collar, long sleeves and flowing train. The bride wore a wedding ring head piece with shoulder length veil. She carried one red rose surrounded by white roses crested on a white Bible which was presented to her by the Wesley United Church.

Miss Belinda Brown of Toronto was maid of honor and the bridesmaid was Miss Lee Kulik, sister of the groom, of Toronto. They wore red velvet gowns with empire waists of floor-length styling. The long sleeved gowns were trimmed with white lace with matching red velvet ribbon set in the lace.

Mike Brodie of Toronto was best man and Ken Lawrie, brother of the bride, acted as usher. Master Bradley Lawrie, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. He wore a red velvet suit and carried the rings on a white velvet cushion trimmed with white lace and inset with red velvet ribbon.

The reception was held at the Kincardine Curling Club at 6 o'clock.

Receiving guests with the wedding party was the bride's mother who wore a kelly green floor-length crimplene gown with a silver-grey stole, silver accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Assisting Mrs. Lawrie, the groom's mother wore a blue jumpsuit with a floor-length vest of navy, mauve and white, a white mohair stole and a baby mum corsage.

Guests were welcomed from Toronto, Elmira, Grimsby, Goderich, Oakville, Hamilton, Orangeville, Georgetown, London, Burlington and Smithville.

Following the reception, the happy couple left for a wedding trip to Windsor and Detroit. They have since taken up residence in Rexdale, Ontario.

Photo by Thornburn

