

CHAPMAN-McCARREL 1972

Patricia McCarrel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCarrel, Port Elgin and Brian Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman of Southampton were joined in marriage in the Port Elgin United Church on May 27th, at 2 p.m. Rev. Ross Cumming officiated the ceremony with Mrs. G. Steeves organist and Mr. Bill Uhrig solist. The church was attractively decorated with candelabras, yellow and mauve gladiolus, mums and baby's breath.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of polyester organza, styled in a victorian trend with stand up collar and A-line skirt. A luxury border of Alencon lace trimmed fans from the shoulder over the bosom and down over the skirt. Lace around the lower skirt extended to the full train. The bishop sleeves were cuffed with lace with matching satin ribbon. The bride's headpiece was a pretty lace etched wedding ring and it held a circular finger tip veil of nylon illusion bordered with narrow lace. She carried a cascade of colonial pink roses, white stephanotis with white streamers and trailing ivy.

The matron of honour, Miss Joan McCarrel and bridesmaids, Audrey McCarrel and Kimberley Chapman were gowned alike in swiss cotton pattered with tiny wallpaper flocking. Empire waistlines trimmed with matching ribbon and stand up collar were enhanced by a wide flounce that finished the three quarter sleeves and the skirt hem. The dresses were in shades of posy pink, canary yellow and orchid. They wore deep crown hats with floppy brims in matching colours, and carried white baskets of white chrysanthemums and colours to match their dresses.

Attending the groom were, Wayne Chapman, best man and acting as ushers were Harry Gilmour, and Ray McCarrel.

The bride chose a two piece nautical suit of mint green for their honeymoon in Ottawa.

VIRTUE - WILSON Wedding of Interest

1972

Wedding vows were exchanged between Linda Lea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson, Kincardine and Donald Arley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arley Virtue of R. R. 1, Port Elgin at a 6:30 p.m. candlelight service at the North Bruce United Brethren Church, on Saturday, September 2nd, 1972.

Rev. Calvin Sturdy officiated at the double ring ceremony. The wedding music was played by Mrs. James McEwing.

Pink and white gladiolas adorned the front of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was lovely in a white floor length gown which featured a deep ruffled skirt, high neckline and sheer bell sleeves with pink ribbon trimming at the waist, flounce and neckline. Her one piece veil and train were held in place by a ring shaped cap, also trimmed with pink ribbon. She carried red roses, pink carnations and white status with white streamers accented with red rose petals.

Mrs. Marlene Clayton, Kincardine, attended her sister as matron of honor. Miss Linda Virtue Toronto, sister of the groom and Mrs. Connie Harris, Toronto were bridesmaids. They were similarly gowned in multi-colored madras plaid peasant dresses and wore crownless wide brimmed white hats trimmed with long hot pink streamers. They carried white and gold baskets of daisies, feathered pink carnations and white status.
