Thomas-Clazie

Baskets of yellow and white daisies decorated Tolmie Memorial Presbyterian Church, Port Elgin, on July 15 when Rev. R. D. MacDonald conducted a candlelight service which united in marriage Catharine Isabelle Clazie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clazie and Richard Brent Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Thomas, all of Port Elgin. Mrs. A. J. Doll was organist and Miss Mary Underwood was guest pianist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Victorian-style organza gown with high pin-pleated ruffled neckline, sheer yoke, empire waistline and bishop sleeves with pin-pleated ruffle at the cuffs. Pin pleating was used on the A-line skirt which was dotted with daisies and formed a train. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Miss Marjorie Clazie was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Misses Jean Clazie, also a sister, and Lori Thomas, sister of the groom. They wore identical champagne colored organza gowns printed in melon and beige. They were styled with deep yokes, traced with melon lace, full sleeves, elasticized at wrists, and flounced A-line skirts. They carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies and peach carnations.

Thomas Fenton was groomsmen and Dayle Thomas, brother of the groom, and John Clazie, brother of the bride, ushered.

The reception was held in Bruce township community hall, Underwood.

The couple will reside in Port Elgin after a wedding to Western Canada.
