

WEDDING BELLS

RANSOME - BRUCE
Wedding of Interest

her brother-in-law, Mr. Lawrence Linton, was lovely in an organza gown with re-embroidered lace on the bodice. Venice lace edged front panels on the gown and deep lace cuffs enhanced the bishop sleeves. The full-skirted back fell to a cathedral train. Rose buds and bow touches added to the waist and neckline. A crystal and pearl tiara held a tiered silk illusion veil. Her bridal bouquet was of cascading pink sweetheart roses with trailing ivy and stephanotis.

Mrs. Sandra Linton, sister of the bride was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Chris Goluzd and Miss Wendy Peacock. They wore identical gowns in pastel shades of aqua, yellow and mauve in flocked nylon over taffeta lining with short puffed sleeves and ruffled neckline. Velvet ribbon accented the waistline, with floor-length streamers falling from the bows at the back. They wore yellow sweetheart roses in their hair and carried cascading bouquets of white single mums, yellow roses and fern.

Mr. Bruce Ransome, R. R. 1, Port Elgin was groomsman for his brother, and Mr. Allen McCarrel, R. R. 1, Port Elgin and Mr. David Ribey, R. R. 3, Tiverton were ushers.

Assisting to receive guests at the reception held at the church, following the ceremony, the mother of the bride was tastefully gowned in a pale blue floor-length ensemble and a corsage of pink roses and white accessories.

The mother of the groom chose a pastel pink polyester dress with a corsage of pink roses and white feathered carnations, complemented by white accessories.

For a wedding trip to Northern Ontario the bride donned a pink and white dress accented with white collar and cuffs and white accessories. Her corsage was pink and white feathered carnations. Upon their return they took up residence at R. R. 4, Paisley.

Guests were present from Toronto, Sarnia, Ayr, Owen Sound, St. Catharines, Ottawa, Hepworth, Kincardine, Gorrie, Port Elgin, Clifford and Tiverton.

WEDDING BELLS

EBY - ROHFRITSCH
To live in London

Grace Lutheran Church, Mitchell, Ontario was the scene of a lovely fall wedding, on Saturday, September 22nd, 1973, when Sharon Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Rohfritsch, Mitchell, became the bride of Stuart Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eby of R. R. 5, Paisley.

Rev. L. Eifert officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony. Miss Cathy Murray was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a long sleeved gown under a sleeveless hooded coat that fell into a long train. Lace edged the coat, sleeves and empire waistline of the dress. Her bouquet was bronze daisies with yellow and orange roses and yellow carnations.

Janice Dowell of Seaforth was maid of honor. She wore a floor length blue flowered gown featuring long sleeves and high collar. She carried a basket of assorted blue and fall coloured dried flowers.

Debra Doig of Egmondville and Magda Schijff of R. R. 4 Atwood were bridesmaids and wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor.

Jim Henderson of R. R. 5, Seaforth was best man and ushering duties were shared by Daryle Rohfritsch, Mitchell and Elgin Dearing, R. R. 2, Staffa.

A reception was held at the Brod-hagen Community Centre in the evening.

Receiving the guests, the mother of the bride wore a blue ensemble complemented with pink roses, and the mother of the groom wore a gown with a pink and mauve top and purple skirt. Her corsage was of white roses.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a dark green blazer with plaid baggy pants and white blouse.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Eby will reside at 520 Morningson Avenue, London.

Weddings

1976

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Douglas Schell were recently married in Knox United Church, Paisley. The bride is the former Debbie Norma McKinnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Serbin and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Schell, all of the Port Elgin area. The couple will reside in North Bruce.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kelly, of Port Elgin, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kimberly Anne, to Thomas Christian Foote, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Foote, of Hamburg, N.Y. The ceremony will take place September 12 in Trinity Episcopal Church, Hamburg. The newly weds will be residing in Rochester, N.Y. area.