

WEDDING BELLS

WILLIAMS — BLACK
Wedding of Interest

A lovely wedding was solemnized on Saturday, October 27th, 1973, when Elizabeth Irma Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. McCune Black, R. R. 3, Fergus, Ontario became the bride of David Richard Williams, of R. R. 1 Port Elgin.

David is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Ross Williams, former residents of R. R. 1, Port Elgin, and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Will Williams, Port Elgin.

Rev. Ross Williams of St. John's United Church, Belwood officiated at the 4:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bridal party consisted of the matron of honor, Cheryl Black, R. R. 3, Fergus; bridesmaids Debbie McManus of Elora, Cathy Louttit of Belwood and Wendy Maas, of Port Elgin; the flower girl Kathy Rayburn of Toronto.

Best man was John Williams of Belwood and the ushers were Robert Williams, Belwood, Lynn Black, R. R. 3, Fergus, Gordon Jamieson, R. R. 1, Port Elgin and ring bearer was Jim Topham, Port Elgin.

A reception and dinner at the church followed the ceremony.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Eastern Ontario, the happy couple will reside on the groom's farm, Highway 21, R.R. 1, Port Elgin.

McDermid-Reed wedding

Sandra Jean Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur John Reed, of Paisley, and Kenneth Neil McDermid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ashwell, and the late Neil McDermid, of Port Elgin, spoke their marriage vows on April 26, 1980 at 7 p.m. in the Knox United Church in Paisley. Rev. C. Clarence McClenaghan officiated. Potted yellow mums formed the setting. Mrs. Nancy Kline was organist and Mrs. Helen Cumming, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's dress of white silk organza was fashioned on Empire lines. The bodice, with an overlay of chantilly lace, had a sheer round yoke re-embroidered with seed pearls in Cameo design. The full skirt had a deep ruffle at the hemline, edged with a wide band of chantilly lace. The headpiece, a Juliet cap of lace and pearls, held in place her cathedral train of tulle illusion edged in matching lace. She carried a silk cascade of pink roses, lily-of-the-valley and baby's breath.

Miss Darlene Wark was maid of honour. Bridesmaids were Cathy McDermid, Donna Garland and Bonnie Schwartz. They wore identical blue crepe gowns with empire waistline and shoestring straps, covered by a capelet of sheer blue flowered nylon. They carried nose-gays of pink roses and blue and white daisies.

Don Evans was best man. Murray McDermid, Norman Reed and Dave McKinnon ushered.

The reception was held at the Maple Square Hall, Port Elgin.

After a honeymoon trip to Eastern Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McDermid will reside in Port Elgin, Ontario.

BOTELHO — HANSLER

To reside in Toronto

Marriage vows were exchanged between Esther Marie Hansler and Joseph Luis Ferreira Botelho last Saturday afternoon before a group of friends and relatives at the Tara Kingdom Hall Of Jehovah's Witnesses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Hansler of Paisley. She has been an active Bible teacher in the public ministry of Jehovah's Witnesses for the past four years. Her husband, Joseph, is a ministerial servant, and full time minister with the University Congregation of Toronto.

Mr. Peter J. Hansler, overseer in the Tara Congregation, and father of the bride, officiated at the ceremony.

Speaking directly to the bride and groom, Mr. Hansler reminded all that "Jehovah is the author of marriage." He likened wedlock to a threefold cord involving the husband, wife and their Creator.

"Including God in the arrangement gives added strength to the union, and when He is considered He remains the greatest deterrent to any thought of dissolving the marriage tie and the loving Helper for maintaining it. Loving consideration of Him and each other will insure the greatest joy and satisfaction in your marriage," he explained.

Mr. Hansler referred the young couple to the Apostle Paul's writings in Ephesians, Chapter 5 as the best of all marriage counselling on marital problems, should these arise. He concluded, "You leave father and mother and start life together, yoked by God's marriage arrangement as Christ taught in Matthew 19: 4 - 6. Let no man put you apart."

The couple will make Toronto their home, and continue with their ministry in the University Congregation.

Hansler-Deal 1976

Marriage vows were exchanged between Judy Deal and Philip Hansler Saturday afternoon before a group of friends and relatives at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's witnesses in Newmarket, Ontario.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deal of Holland Landing. She has been an active Bible teacher in the public ministry of Jehovah's witnesses in Newmarket. Her husband, Philip, is also an active minister with the Tara Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Mr. Douglas Purves, Overseer in the Ottawa Congregation, officiated at the ceremony. Speaking directly to the bride and groom, Mr. Purves reminded all that 'Jehovah is the author of marriage.' He likened wedlock to a threefold cord involving the husband, wife and their Creator. 'Including God in the arrangement gives added strength to the union, and when He is considered He remains the greatest deterrent to any thought of dissolving the marriage tie and the loving Helper for maintaining it. Loving consideration of Him and each other will insure the greatest joy and satisfaction in your marriage,' he explained.

Mr. Purves referred the young couple to the Apostle Paul's writings at Ephesians Chapter 5 as the best of all marriage counseling on marital problems, should these arise. He concluded, 'You leave father and mother and start life together, yoked by God's marriage arrangement as Christ taught at Matthew 24:4-6. Let no man put you apart.'

The couple will make Port Elgin their home, and continue with their ministry in the Tara Congregation.
