

Cumming— Kelly vows are heard

(Photo by Thornburn)

The wedding of Carolyn Kelly to Stephen Cumming, both of Port Elgin was held at the United Church, Port Elgin August 24 at 6 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Kelly of R. R. 5, Paisley and the groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Ross Cumming, Port Elgin. The ceremony was solemnized by Stephen's father Rev. Ross Cumming.

The bride given in marriage by her parents wore a soft flowing empire waisted gown with a delicately laced bodice, cuffs, collar and hemline; and a lace trimmed veil which flowed chapel length.

Carolyn's bridesmaid Bobby (Roberta) Osauer of Delhi, Ont.

wore a simple knit pale blue gown with a U neckline, empire waist and softly gathered skirt, set off by a blue wide brimmed hat. Both bride and bridesmaid carried bouquets of yellow and white carnations.

Stephen's best man was Ron (Ronald) Hockley of London, formerly of Port Elgin.

The ushers were John Cumming and John Kelly.

The soloist Kenneth Kelly, accompanied by organist Mrs. Jeanette Steeves sang "Song of Joy" before the wedding and "More" during the signing of the register.

The wedding dinner was served at the United Church House and a reception held following at the Community Centre 1974

North Bruce 1974

Mrs. James Cluley
832 - 2786

BRIDE TO BE HONORED

A most enjoyable social evening was held on Monday when the ladies of the North Bruce community and friends from Port Elgin gathered at the U.B. church to honor a bride-to-be, Miss Norma Lamont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Lamont of the 4th of Saugeen Township.

Following a short program under the chairmanship of Mrs. Jas. Clazie, Mrs. George McCarral read an address to Norma and she was presented with gifts from the community.

These were a pair of oil paintings, the work of Mrs. Grant Clazie, a Kenwood Blanket and a beautiful swag lamp.

Best wishes for the future accompany Norma who is to be married this coming Saturday. She will be making her home in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sieffert are pleased to announce the engagement of their only daughter, Donna Marie to Arthur Doern, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doern, Waterloo. The marriage to take place Saturday, June 21st, 1975 at the United Brethren Church, North Bruce. 22-pd

MacDonald— Lamont

1974
Tolmie Memorial church in Port Elgin was the scene of a pretty fall wedding which united Norman Jean Lamont and Frederick Lance MacDonald in marriage, Saturday, October 26th at 6 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Lamont, R. R. 5, Paisley and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lance MacDonald of Aylmer, Quebec.

The church was decorated with candelabra and bouquets of bright yellow mums, white glads and white daisies with yellow centres. Mrs. Albert Doll played traditional wedding music and Larry Leblanc of Ottawa was soloist.

The young bride wore a floor length white Lagoda crepe dress, trimmed with French Guipere lace. The scooped neckline was outlined in lace and the gown featured bishop's sleeves and a cathedral train. The full length veil cascaded from a white pillbox hat. She carried a white Bible crested with white mums and baby's breath and a cascade of red roses.

Attendants, Maid of Honor, Miss Marlene Kinnear; bridesmaids, were Mrs. Kate Summers, Mrs. Frank De Pedro and Misses Shirley and Linda MacDonald, sisters of the groom of Ottawa and Scotland.

They wore identical gowns of true blue shade peau de soie and carried nosegays of yellow mums and yellow centered white daisies.

Denis Souliere was groomsman and ushers were Donald MacDonald, brother of the groom, Ron and Ross Lamont, brothers of the bride and Fred Bender.

A reception followed at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall in Port Elgin.

The young couple are living at 115 Monterey Drive in Ottawa.

... WEDDING ...

Baskets of yellow flowers and candelabra decorated the Knox United Church, Paisley, Ontario, for the beautiful spring double ring ceremony, which united in marriage Colleen Ann Howe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith McKinnon, RR 5, Paisley, and Francis George Maybury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maybury of Port Elgin, on Saturday, April 12th, 1975 at 4:00 p.m. Rev. Ken Welch of London, formerly of Paisley officiated. Mr. Eric Parker was organist and Mrs. Wendy Cormack was soloist. She sang "Day by Day" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked beautiful in a stunning gown of white satin. Antique lace accented the waist, shoulders and neckline. Pearls encrusted her floor length veil. The gown had been worn by her mother, at her wedding. She carried a bouquet of white daisy mums and yellow starflowers.

The maid of honour, Miss Sharon Bell, wore a gown of yellow chiffon with a short pleated cape and stand-up collar, complemented with a white wide brimmed floppy hat and a parasol bouquet of white shasta daisies, mauve carnations and yellow starflowers.

The bridesmaids, Miss Debba Nodwell, Miss Freida Scott and Miss Laurel McKinnon, cousin of the bride were similarly gowned to the maid of honour. Miss Janet Maybury, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid, also wearing a gown identical to that of the bridesmaids, and carrying a basket of flowers matching the bridesmaids bouquets.

Master Darren Howe, brother of the bride was ringbearer.

Mr. Robert Burns was best man, and Mr. Gord Lamont, Mr. Rod McKinnon, cousin of the bride, and Mr. John Maybury, brother of the groom were ushers.

The male attendants wore brown Windsor tuxedos with yellow ruffled shirts and matching brown bow ties. The groom wore a brown tuxedo with white ruffled shirt, brown bow tie and vest.

The bride's mother received guests in a gown of rose chiffon accented with panels of pink. Her corsage was pink mini carnations. The groom's mother assisted wearing an ice blue gown of jersey and corsage of pale pink carnations.

Following the dinner, a reception and dance was held in the Bruce Township Community Centre.

For her going away outfit the bride chose an at the knee length dress of navy, accented with blue and white polka dot sleeves and white collar. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Out of town guests were present from Toronto, Kincardine, Southampton, Georgetown, Tara, Chesley, Embro, Elmwood and Orangeville. A unique feature of the happy occasion was the presence of the bride's great grandmother, Mrs. Allan McKinnon and also her grandmother, Mrs. Wesley Howe, both of RR 5, Paisley.

Following a honeymoon in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Maybury will reside at R.R. 5, Paisley.