

Belrose-Leeder

Wed in Owen Sound

A beautiful spring wedding was solemnized at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Owen Sound on Sunday, May 3rd, 1976 when vows were exchanged by Mary Jean Leeder and Darrell Lloyd Belrose.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leeder, R.R.1, Port Elgin and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Belrose of Owen Sound.

Elder George Cameron officiated. Mr. Danny Hansen was organist and soloists were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bennington.

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white crepe featuring a low neckline enhanced with ruffles of lace and sheer. A short train of nylon sheer and ruffles fell gently from the fitted waist, and finger tip sleeves buttoned at the wrist. Her veil was caught in a cap effect with mother of pearl and flowers on nylon net. White sandals complemented the ensemble. The bridal bouquet was American Beauty red silk roses with white Italian lace streamers.

The matron of honour, Mrs. Heather Lipo, Owen Sound and maid of honour, Miss Edna Leeder of Guelph were similarly gowned in white flowered nylon net over pink crepe.

The bridesmaids, Miss Cheryl Cochran, Mississauga and Miss Ann Rochford of Port Elgin wore matching princess line dresses of pink crepe with short puffed sleeves.

The bridal attendants carried white gathering baskets of blue wood daisies and pink bunny tails.

Mr. Roy Canning of Owen Sound was groomsman. Ushers were Messrs. David Hirst of Owen Sound, Doug Bolger, New Liskeard and John Morgan of Dundalk. Doormen were John and Richard Leeder, both of Port Elgin.

The groom chose a royal blue Windsor tuxedo and his attendants were attired in powder blue Windsor dinner jackets complemented by dark blue formal trousers.

The wedding reception was held in St. Mary's Hall, Owen Sound.

For going away, the bride wore a three-piece light green tailored pant suit with flowered blouse and white accessories.

The happy couple will reside in Scarborough.

NIEFORTH-McCAREEL

In a ceremony October 8, Joan Florence McCarrel and Robert Earl Nieforth were united in marriage.

1977

and sequins. Her long sleeves had maribou trim at the wrists. The gown featured a contoured waist with a v-front, and skirt draped into an A-line with chapel train.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCarrel of R. 1, Port Elgin, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Patricia Chapman as matron of honour. Mrs. Wendy McKnight and Mrs. Sandy Taylor were bridesmaids.

A separate hood bordered with maribou and featuring a hood completed her gown. She wore a shoulder length veil and carried red roses and white daisies.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nieforth of Halifax County, Nova Scotia, was attended by Ed Keating. Ushers were Bill Barkly and Brian Chapman.

The matron of honour's gown was of pale green jersey, with A-line skirt, and jacket of dark green velvet. She carried a bouquet of green carnations and white daisies.

The Port Elgin United Church was decorated for the wedding with candelabra, and baskets of gladioli and ferns. The Rev. Peter Walford-Davis conducted the ceremony.

The bridesmaids' gowns were in similar style, of peach jersey. The carried matching flowers.

The bride's gown was a simple, elegant jersey gown, with a tiny yoke of embroidered English net, jewelled with pearls

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the United Church House.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Nova Scotia, after which they will reside in Port Elgin.

Harford - Cline

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Harford are pleased to announce the marriage of their daughter Kathleen to William Leroy Cline, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cline of Tiverton. The wedding took place Saturday, July 21, 1979 at 3:30 p.m.

The bride wore a long white gown trimmed with lace, with a short veil held in place with an open work headpiece. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white baby's breath.

Pauline Weber was Matron of Honour wearing a street length dress of blue flowered material. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white baby's breath with blue ribbon for colour. The bridesmaid was Tammy Cline who wore a matching yellow dress. She carried a similar bouquet with yellow ribbon.

The groom's attendants were Brad Cline as best man and Randy Cline as ring bearer.

A reception was held at the Port Elgin Legion Hall. Guests at the wedding were from England, Kitchener, Ottawa, Port Dover and the local area.

After a honeymoon in Niagara Falls, the happy couple is residing in Port Elgin.

The forthcoming marriage uniting Kathryn Diane, daughter of Mr. Charles W. Kelly and the late Florence Kelly, and Lloyd Rueben, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Cooper, will take place on October 5, 1985, at 8:00 p.m. in the Knox Presbyterian Church, Tiverton, Ontario. 3bg38p